

23/03/2020

BREAKING NEWS:

COVID-19 impacts rehearsal and performance activities

For the safety and wellbeing of performers, staff and general public, the Blue Ro Management Committee, in collaboration, with senior Centacare staff, advise that as from 20 March 2020 until 30 June 2020 all Blue Ro rehearsal and performance activities involving performing artists with disability are suspended.

Further advice will be provided on or before 30 June 2020 regarding rehearsal and performance activities after 30 June 2020.

Good News

Blue Ro Theatre Company can share with you that the Queensland Government has notified us that we will be automatically funded under the Arts Queensland Organisations Fund for another 12 months.

Blue Ro has thanked Arts Queensland and the Queensland Government for their ongoing support of the Queensland creative arts sector.

Managing the time in which we live

Take care and please be mindful, that our actions and decisions over the next 3-6 months will not only affect our health and wellbeing; they will also potentially affect the health and wellbeing of our loved ones, colleagues, friends, neighbours and the general public.

As information is constantly changing about COVID-19 use reliable resources for your information:

- Australian Government health alerts site: <https://www.health.gov.au/news/health-alerts/novel-coronavirus-2019-ncov-health-alert>
- Australian Government Fact Sheets relating to COVID-19 protocols can be found at <https://www.health.gov.au/resources/collections/novel-coronavirus-2019-ncov-resources>
- Queensland Government resources relating to COVID 19 can be found at <https://www.qld.gov.au/health/conditions/health-alerts/coronavirus-covid-19>
- Health Direct is government-funded service, providing quality, approved health information and advice at: <https://www.healthdirect.gov.au/coronavirus>

Thank you to everyone for your cooperation in these difficult times.